DEFINITION

A person having origins in any of the original peoples of the Far East, Southeast Asia, the Indian subcontinent, or the Pacific Islands

“Asian American”
or “Asian-American”

Descriptive Terms

People prefer Asian American (without hyphen) because using the hyphen describes foreign affairs kind of things: “Asian-American trade talks”. The lack of the hyphen stresses that Asian Americans are not foreigners.

Oriental

Oriental -- A general rule of thumb is “Oriental” is for rugs, not people

In Washington state, local and state lawmakers are prohibited from using the term “Oriental” in statutes, codes, rules, and regulations!

America was created and shaped by successive waves of immigrants and has been regarded as the “melting pot of the world ”

First wave: Hispanic explorers and European colonizers

Second wave: Shiploads of Africans to work plantations

Third wave - Asians: Chinese to work on Pacific railroads; Japanese, Filipinos, and Koreans to work sugar cane plantations in Hawaii

Most recent wave: 1975 saw Southeast Asian refugees after fall of Vietnam

1st wave: Explosion of ethnic Chinese from Vietnam

2d wave: Vietnamese “Boat People”

3d wave: “Refugees”

Population Growth -- 1995 to 2025

Asian Americans are the fastest-growing ethnic minority group in the United States. Currently, half of all immigrants entering America are Asian.
